February 13, 2018 ~ Teresa Pusztai A Quilter's Bucket List: Fulfilling Your Dreams and Aspirations 6:30pm to 8:30pm

Our speaker this month is one of our own founding members. Teresa Pusztai has been enjoying the art of quilting since 2000. Following a 36-year career in the nonprofit sector, Teresa transitioned her passion for quilting into her new vocation as a professional longarm quilter.

Teresa enjoys a wide array of quilting styles from hand embroidery to modern quilts. Please join us on February 13th when Teresa takes us down her journey with a trunk show and inspires us to be the quilters we'd like to become.

~ Lisbeth Lord

March 13, 2018 Karlee Porter ~ "Graffiti Quilting" 6:30pm to 8:30pm

Quilting since 2009, but an artist all her life, Karlee Porter has traveled the world to teach quilting and loves connecting with and inspiring her students to quilt on their own terms. Karlee was exposed to an amazing culture of the ever-changing scene of ephemeral graffiti in the back alleys of downtown Salt Lake City. She would take countless pictures of all the amazing graffiti by the unknown artists. Then would fill pages of sketchbooks trying to be "street."

Karlee is a notorious Quilt-Police evader and loves all things in rainbow order. She loves to push the boundaries in her quilting and design work, and tends to blur the lines between traditional quilting techniques and 21st century technology. Karlee designs and prints her own fabric, and is also an avid computerized quilting and embroidery design creator.

Letter From The President

It is January 2nd and I'm already behind! Let me back up a minute. I finished all my customer Christmas quilts early this season and was looking forward to three weeks of quilting for myself. I made a list of all the quilting things I wanted to get done. I chuckled to myself because my lists never go well because of life and such. I just stopped and checked the list. I got four of nine projects done, added and completed one and added and started another. Of course, the one project that I need to have done by next Tuesday is nowhere near complete. It is January 2nd and I'm already behind. But that is OK because I'm doing what I love and today I have 364 days to get caught up. I'm looking forward to another year with the guild. I hope you are excited too! It's going to be a good year.

~ Donna Smith, President

March 2018 Workshop:

Karlee Porter: "Graffiti Quilting"

803 Third Avenue, Longmont, CO

Time: 9am to 4pm

Workshop Fee: TBD

*Sign-ups for Members begin at the December 12th Guild meeting

Do you want to give your quilts the "Pow! Wow!" factor? Spend the day with the celebrated, internationally acclaimed, award-winning quilter, Karlee Porter, and discover the bliss and freedom of graffiti quilting. Graffiti Quilting is a free motion quilting style that combines tons of simple quilting motifs into one cohesive piece. Learn how to mix and match tons of various designs and make a unique quilt with a style all your own!

April 2018 Workshops:

Laura Heine: "Charming Collages"

April 11 ~ Emerson the Puppy

April 12 ~ Purrfect the Kitten

Location: First Evangelical Lutheran Church,
803 Third Avenue, Longmont, CO

Time: 9am to 4pm Workshop Fee: $75.00

Laura Heine will be doing two collage workshops for us on April 11 and 12. Spend a day creating your own charming collage: Emerson the Puppy (April 11) or Purrfect the Kitten (April 12) with Laura by your side!! Learn her techniques and tips! Learn about color and value and not even realize you are learning it! Work with different scales of fabric and turn them into a one-of-a-kind quilt!

Come be wowed by Laura's trunk show and lecture on April 10 and make your own collage with Laura. Sign ups for these workshops will begin on January 9.

Retreating Close to Home

Sewing machines, cutting tables, design walls and quilters combined November 10-12, for the Fourth Annual In-Town Retreat at the Longmont Moose Lodge. Overall, fifty-four LQG members participated in the Retreat, including 14 members who were new to the Moose Retreat. A big thank you to the Moose members who made us feel so welcome; in return they learned something about quilting from us! Quilting at the Moose Lodge offered participants a spacious, well-lit sewing room, optional meals, and the ability to go home to sleep in their own bed at night (a big bonus for some!). During the weekend, a wide array of projects were completed, friendships were made, and everyone had fun sewing together. You can see pictures on the Guild's Facebook page.

The 2018 Retreat schedule is as follows:

February 16-18, 2018: In-Town Retreat at The Presser Foot; registration will begin ½ hour prior to the January Guild meeting.

May 17-20, 2018: Spring Mountain Retreat at Highlands

September 13-16, 2018: Fall Mountain Retreat at Highlands

November 9-11, 2018: In-Town Retreat at the Moose Lodge

Bee Sew Brave and Wounded Warrior Bee

Got extra fabric? Want to clean out your stash? As always, we are in need of donations of material for quilts for our soldiers as they return back home. We would love your donations of any fabric that is red, white, blue, and/or patriotic colors or any brown fabric that would work for our soldiers coming back from Desert Storm. Please make sure the fabric is at least a fat quarter or 1/4 yard in size. Also, if you would like to donate backing fabric and/or batting, that would be greatly appreciated.

I will have a container available at each meeting at the membership table. Thank you in advance for all you support!!

INTERFAITH QUILTERS OF LONGMONT

32nd ANNUAL SHOW AND SALE

MARCH 2 AND 3, 2018

Interfaith Quilters of Longmont is celebrating their 32nd Annual Quilt Show and Sale on March 2nd and 3rd, 2018. It will be held at the First Lutheran Church, 803 Third Avenue in Longmont, Colorado. The proceeds from these hand and machine made quilts will benefit the O.U.R. (Outreach United Resource) Center and the Safe Shelter of the Saint Vrain Valley. This event is always held on the first weekend in March. The preview will be open Friday, March 2nd from 5pm till 8pm (no sales). The donation of $5.00 includes Saturday. The sale will be held Saturday, March 3rd, from 10am till 4pm with a donation of $1.00. Those who attend the preview are exempt from donating on Saturday. Methods of payment on Saturday include cash, check, and credit cards.

The featured quilters this year is An Encore of Us!! Several of the members will have a section to display their own quilted pieces. They will show you what they have made and discuss how it is made. They hope to inspire you to try some form of quilting such as paper piecing, machine and hand quilting, art quilts, applique, and more. You will certainly be amazed at the variety and quality of these personal collections.

There will be about 600 quilts of various types for sale on Saturday, March 3rd. There is a wide variety of bed sizes, juvenile styles, baby crib, lap, wall hangings, table toppers, pillows and placemats of all colors and themes. Everything is reasonably priced and of superb quality. You will not find a better deal in town. Best of all, the proceeds help the O.U.R. Center and the Safe Shelter of the Saint Vrain Valley. Come view the quilts on Friday eve and buy the ones that captivate you on Saturday. You will be helping your local community and yourself at the same time. The customer service volunteers, in blue aprons, will assist you in finding gifts for birthdays, babies, holidays, yourself, etc., and bring them to the check out counter for you.

Quilt appraisal is also offered by Jeananne Wright. For an appointment call 303-772-7684. If you have a quilt that you would like to have appraised at the show, call for an appointment. She is very experienced in this process.

Interfaith Quilters serve the community all year long by donating items to the O.U.R. Center, the Safe Shelter, Quilts of Valor for military veterans, Mountain States Children's Home and other needs that arise in the community during the year. This active group of quilters is comprised of about 130 volunteers with various degrees of experience. It is a great place to learn to quilt or to just get inspiration for that quilt you have been meaning to sew. We gather most Mondays from 9 am till 3 pm at the First Lutheran Church on the corner of Third Avenue and Terry Street, Longmont. Bring your Lunch. New members are always welcome. For more information about Interfaith Quilters of Longmont visit our web site at www.interfaithquilters.com. Our email address is: interfaithquilts@gmail.com.

2017 LQG Quilt Show ~ "The Art of Quilting"

The 10th Annual Quilt Show was held on Friday, October 20th and Saturday, October 21st, 2017, at the Boulder County Fairgrounds. Approximately 600 attendees came to view 162 amazing quilts. Three well-attended bed turnings were hosted by Jeananne Wright, and featured the stunning quilt collection of Mariko Inoue. A very big thank you to the committee and amazing volunteers - including quite a few husbands – which made for a very smooth running and successful event.

Mark your calendars for the 2018 show, which will be held on Friday, October 19th and Saturday, October 20th!

IMPORTANT NEWS!!

Guild meeting times are changing for 2018!! Due to our meetings extending past 9:00, we have been asked to adjust our times to 6:30 to 8:30pm. This will help the Church custodial crew complete their cleanup at a reasonable time after our meetings have ended.

Please Notice This

The format of our Guild meetings will run as usual and speakers will begin at approximately 7:30pm. Thank you for your flexibility and understanding regarding this change.

~ LQG Board

Do You Facebook?

Did you know that the Guild has a Facebook page? It's a great way to connect with the quilting community for information, to ask questions, and to be inspired.

During the last month, postings have included:

- Pictures from retreats, workshops, meetings and the Quilt Show;
- Updates about Guild activities;
- Discussions about "What's the best iron to purchase?" and "What type of longarm do you have?";
- Availability of free batting;
- Inspirational quilts;
- Notifications of area quilt activities;
- Videos from one of our local quilt stores;
- AND MORE!

To join the page, just type "Longmont Quilt Guild" in the Facebook search box. Then ask to become a page member. Open yourself to a new on-line community!
