Monthly Program Happenings

Our Annual Schoolhouse Meeting has a New Look

October 9, 2018
6:30 to 9:00 pm

Longmont Quilt Guild is growing and new numbers of quilters and fiber artists are increasing the membership its fullest size ever. It is great to realize the benefits of this growth. And it is probably time to experience each other as potential bee participants, friends, and fellow learners quilting skills. Our quilting goals, to place quilts where they are needed in the community and to expand quilt knowledge, create opportunities for us to accomplish those goals. Sew days and retreats support our work together too.

A question for all long-standing members to ask is how we incorporate newcomers in a welcoming way to increase participation in our goals? It is possible that each of us, after our orientation and introduction to the guild, has wondered, "How do I meet other guild members and how do I find my belonging in the bigger group?" For some this is an easy transition into the guild and for some it is more challenging to find a comfortable fit. Past and present programs committee members have found ways to increase our exposure to speakers, create workshops to experience skillful quilting work, and address the varying desire of members to keep learning.

To be inclusive with all of our members, let's take a guild meeting evening to get to know newcomers and renew friendships as we endeavor to increase the cohesiveness of our guild.

Let's take a look at who we are as a guild and find out about one another!

Everyone is invited to come play some games (guild trivia included!) as a group and have some fun.

Yes, this year's Schoolhouse is a change from our traditional schoolhouse evening, and yes, we do need you to make it an evening of fun! The evening is, however, an opportunity to get to know others—to learn about the guild instead of learning specific sewing or quilting techniques.

We will have our usual business meeting, show and tell, and a few surprises thrown into the mix. Join us on Tuesday, October 9th, 2018 at the church and let's get to know each other, again!

A Message from Your President, Donna Smith

As the season starts to change, I contemplate where I am in my life and in my quilting. I look forward to the shorter days and cooler temperatures and winding down my tenure as the president of the Longmont Quilt Guild.

I am excited to see what the nominating committee is doing. I'm excited to see those who need to take a break, get to... And to see others step up with new ideas and potential. I am ready for retreat season to begin so that I can get more piecing done and I look forward to Quilt -A-Fair and our own Quilt Show, although there is a lot of work on my part getting through this season too!

I hope this changing season is as invigorating for you! Don't forget to enter your quilts in the quilt show so that we have lots of eye candy! If you need a boost, check out the available bees or a retreat. It is always beneficial to spend quality time with other creative people.

...And "Thank you!" to all you do to make our guild special!

Don't Be Silent—Get Those Quilts Ready for Auction

If you have a small quilt in your stash (or in your head waiting to get out) we'd love for you to get it out and donate it to this year's quilt show for the silent auction. Last year our mini quilt silent auction was a great success, so we'd like to see if we can do even better this year.

Our goal is to have 100 mini quilts for a silent auction to be located at the entrance of the show this year. We'll showcase 50 quilts for each day. Minimum quilt size (width + height) 24", maximum quilt size (width + height) 72". This means you can donate any quilt that is 12"x12" up to 36"x36" and anywhere in between. We'd love to see some table runners and 3D items in there too, so don't limit yourself to just square shapes.

Be creative! Try a new technique! Pull out that orphan block you've been meaning to work on! This will be our main fundraiser at the show this year, so please consider making a quilt for us to auction off. As always, thanks for your continued support of our Guild!

Quilts for Kids—Do You Have a Kit You're Working On?

Quilts for Kids...go to children in Colorado hospitals. We currently have dozens of kits out among guild members to be completed. Please finish your kit and return it at a guild meeting. If you're unable to finish your kit, please return it so someone else can complete it. As a reminder, please return everything that came with your kit, including the bag and instructions.

Build a Block of the Month!

Imagine leaving the guild meeting with a stack of lovely, large quilt blocks! Our Guild's block-of-the-month is a fun, voluntary program where you can make one or more blocks and enter them in a drawing at the meeting where you could win them all.

All blocks are 12-1/2" unfinished. We will hand out printed directions at the meeting prior to when a particular block is due and instructions will also be posted on the website at <http://longmontquiltguild.org/quiltguildactivities/block-of-the-month/>. This is a great way to use up your lovely scraps! You could also sew along during the month to make yourself a sampler quilt since the blocks are all the same finished size.

In the event you want to try new blocks but don't want another project we will have a donation box for your blocks, or any orphan blocks you are not going to use. We will give them to outreach for their use.

DREAM CATCHERS
QUILTING

Outreach, By the Numbers

To all of you who have done any work on Community Outreach Quilts, THANK YOU so much! The quilts are all clearly made with love and caring. How wonderful you all are!

39 Quilts donated to the Longmont Police and Fire Departments to pass out

8 Quilts donated to the Rocky Mountain Cancer Treatment Center for people in chemotherapy treatment

7 Very large quilts donated to the Women's Safe Shelter

21 Finished quilts ready to be donated this fall

12 Pink Quilts will be presented at the October 9th guild meeting to honor members, family, and friends who are breast cancer survivors or are currently fighting breast cancer

Everyone who has received a quilt is very appreciative of the Longmont Quilt Guild! These are the numbers so far this year and each month we get a few more back and on their way to being donated.

Sew Day in August was so delightful! Thank you so much for coming and helping to make some quilts to donate to people who will feel the love and caring that goes into every stitch!

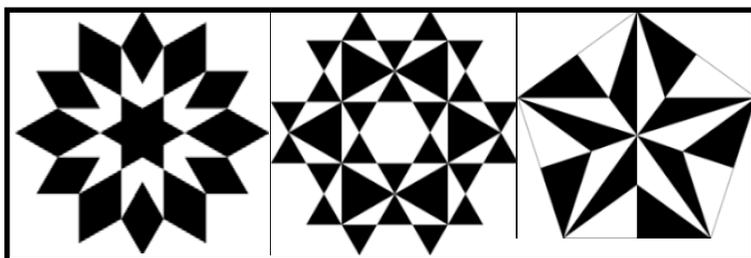

Even those members who could not come to the August Sew Day might be making quilts for Outreach. That is so wonderful of you if you piece the top, quilt it or bind it. You do a caring, helpful job!

On Thursday, November 8, we will have another Sew Day at the Moose Lodge. It is the day before the local guild retreat. Please put this date on your calendar so you can plan to come.

All of our Outreach Quilts are so lovely! You have done a great job! THANK YOU!

What's Coming up In the Quilting World...

Quilt-a-Fair
Sept 21-22
9:00-5:00

Boulder County Fairgrounds
9595 Nelson Road, Longmont

Presented by the Colorado Quilting Council, Quilt-A-Fair will host 70+ vendors, a mini/small quilt auction, and quilt appraisals with Longmont Quilt Guild's very own Jean-anne Wright.

Only $5 Admission fee (cash only), and children under 10 attend free of charge.

Check it out for a full day of quilting shopping and fun.

Equilter is hosting quilt artist MJ Kinman, creator of the popular Birthstone Pattern series. She'll be in Boulder on Saturday and Sunday, October 6 & 7 from 9am to 4pm for her "Treasure Hunting" workshop. There's still room in the workshop if you'd like to attend.

Bee Sew Brave Honors Our Veterans, Stitch by Stitch

Break out your red, white and blue for the Guild's monthly meeting on Tuesday, November 13, as Bee Sew Brave (BSB) presents a special Veteran's Day-inspired program, "Honoring Our Veterans, Stitch By Stitch."

The evening will feature Veteran recognition; information about BSB activities and the organizations they support, including speakers from some of them; patriotic-themed quilts; an Honor Guard; and much more. We'll even serve refreshments!

LQG members are asked to bring guests who are veterans or active-duty military so that we can honor them for their service to our country. Husbands, parents, children, neighbors, friends are all welcome to attend. To ensure that we accommodate all guests and have adequate awards, please complete the RSVP form and return it to the BSB box at the Guild's membership table.

Help our Guild honor the brave people who have served our country. It will be an inspiring evening.

Questions?? Contact P.J. Sylvester (303-827-6082) or Paula Ball (720-278-6170).

An "In-Town" Getaway at The Moose Lodge

November 9 - 11th

Sign ups begin at the September Guild Meeting
starting at 6pm, filling up on a first-come first-served basis

The in town retreats are "no frills", members-only quilt retreats. Sew during the day; sleep in your own bed at night! The retreat runs Friday – Sunday; choose to attend one, two or all three days.

You must pre-register, as this is not a "drop-in" weekend.

An optional "Outreach Sew Day" on will be held on Thursday, November 8, 3:00-9:00 p.m. Set up your work station early, start sewing, and help achieve the Guild's Outreach goals. Please, no personal projects on Thursday.

Retreat Hours

Friday, November 9th, 9:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Saturday, November 10th, 9:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m.
Sunday, November 11th, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Where is the Retreat?

The Longmont Moose Hall will be home for the weekend retreat and is located at 2210 Pratt Street (behind the old K-Mart on North Main Street).

What will the Retreat Cost?

$35 – Friday, November 9 – Sunday,
November 11 (your best buy)
$15 – Friday, November 9
$15 – Saturday, November 10
$15 – Sunday, November 11

We will be sewing in a large, open room, with good lighting and adequate electrical outlets/ power. We have room for 50 total participants, so come along and spend the weekend sewing, learning, creating, catching up with friends and making new ones.

Where Should I Park?

Access to the retreat is easy with parking in the north lot with the entrance to the lodge through the north door. As the building is secured at night, you can leave your workstation and other items setup overnight. Members will do their own set-up, take-down and floor sweeping at the end of the retreat.

What about Meals?

Food is not included. You can bring your own, order in food, or eat Moose food as available. We can use Moose refrigerators. Retreaters are welcome to purchase alcoholic or soft drinks from the Moose bar. For those with RV's, 6 RV hookups, indoor bathroom and shower are available. Questions? Contact Pat Wick, patriciaewick@hotmail.com, 720-988-5147

Celebrate the Art of Quilting. Enter a Quilt – or Two – Today

Each guild member has the opportunity to enter up to two quilts at no cost. If you've not yet joined the guild – become a member now and join in the fun. The annual show provides us the opportunity to spotlight the art of quilting, while touting the talent of our group, so please consider entering a quilt – or two! Quilts may not be larger than 110" x 110". Winning quilts are selected by attendees of the quilt show and ribbons will be awarded for first, second, and third place.

Register online at <http://longmontquiltguild.org/quiltguildactivities/quilt-show/>.

Quilts must be registered by September 19th. Last year the show filled up early, so please understand that registration may close earlier if we hit the maximum number of quilts we can hang.

Registered quilts may be dropped off at our October 9th guild meeting. There is no late drop off this year, so if you will not be attending the October meeting, please make sure you make arrangements to have a friend drop it off. Quilts must be labeled and have a hanging sleeve. Loose quilts will not be accepted, so please bring them in a pillowcase or other protective covering with your name on the outside as well. The guild website has all the information you'll

Make sure your quilt has a label, a hanging sleeve, and is submitted in a labeled bag (please one bag per quilt).

Thanks!!

Come join the Hive! It's the Newbee Quilting Bee

As a way to welcome new guild members to our ever-enlarging guild, a new bee is being formed—The “Newbee”.

If you are a relatively new member to the guild, please join us...we've had 17 new members join already!

The co-sponsors of the Bee are Donna Smith, guild president and Katie Huxford, co-webmaster. Meetings will be held on the third Saturday of each month from 1-4 pm—starting on September 15th — and will be held at the First Evangelical Lutheran Church, where the Guild has its normal monthly meetings.

Meeting details will be added to the website calendar when available. If you are a relatively new LQG member, consider joining us to network with other ‘Newbees’!

It's a Beauty!

The raffle quilt continues to sell itself! So far the Guild has deposited $4,280 from raffle ticket sales, and almost 4,600 tickets have been sold. Lyons Quilting has been very generous with their space and sales staff in helping us sell the raffle tickets. They sold almost 400 tickets at their Quilt Show on August 11th. That's amazing!

The quilt made the trek to Parker, CO on July 28th for the Colorado Quilt Council meeting where Ricky Timms was the speaker and we sold 125 tickets for $107.

About 900 tickets are still checked out by our members. If you have some please bring them to a meeting as soon as you can.

The quilt has been displayed at A Quilter's Corner in Erie, and will be on display at Quilt A-Fair on September 21st and 22nd and then at the Longmont Quilt Guild show on October 19th and 20th.

The date you need to have all of your raffle tickets returned to the Raffle Quilt Committee. Returning them by this date will let the Committee prepare everything they need for the drawing at the December Guild meeting.

Longarm
Quilters,
We Need
YOU!

The Bee Sew Brave group has grown to 32 members and they are making lots of quilt tops for military outreach including Quilts of Valor and Wounded Warriors. If you are a longarmer and would like to be added to the list of available quilters, please contact PJ Sylvester at Paulasylvester@comcast.net or 303-827-6082.

If you have any questions or want more information about any of the Guild's programs, go online to longmontquiltguild.org. You'll also find contact information for the board members on the site.

LQG meets the 2nd Tuesday of the month at the First Evangelical Lutheran Church at Third Avenue and Terry Street in Longmont (parking behind church), from 6:30-8:30pm. LQG members are welcome to attend the monthly board meeting. See the LQG website for the day and time of the next meeting.
